

August 25, 2023

Dear Business Owner:

On October 21, 2023, the combined Music Teachers Associations of Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont will hold a joint Quad State Conference at the Brattleboro Music Center in Brattleboro, Vermont. All four states are affiliated with the Music Teachers National Association (MTNA), the oldest professional music teachers' association in the United States.

Music teachers from all four states will attend. A conference program guide all attendees receive will include the conference schedule, biographies of clinicians, and advertisements of music schools, stores and services throughout New England. The keynote performers will be internationally acclaimed pianist Artina McCain, along with Vermont's own piano virtuoso and pedagogue, Claire Black. Because Vermont hosts the conference only once every four years, this is an excellent opportunity for you to reach an expanded customer base.

We invite you to receive recognition of your business or organization by advertising in the 2023 Quad State Conference Program Guide. The guide will be printed in black and white and on 8½×11 paper folded in half with an attractive cover. (See ad sizes and rates below.)

The postmark deadline to send ads for publication is Friday, September 29, 2023. If you wish to participate, please email a high resolution pdf file and send the form below with a check made payable to VMTA to:

Laurel Ann Maurer, President VMTA
96 Tremont Street
Barre, VT 05641

telephone: 802-881-9153

Thank you very much for your interest in our conference.

Sincerely,

Laurel Ann Maurer, President, VMTA
