

August 18, 2021

As the Vermont Music Teachers Association (VMTA) prepares to begin another exciting year (our 56th!), we invite you to join us by sponsoring VMTA. The support of the Vermont music business community is critical to the success of our programs for music teachers and students and for Vermont's entire music community. The following activities are planned for the 2021-2022 year:

- MTNA Student Performance Competitions and Chamber Music Festival, November 14, 2021, Richmond Library, Richmond, Vt. (State winners and representatives advance to Eastern Division-level competition.)
- VMTA Spring Non-Competitive Music Festival, March 2022, location to be determined.

Full Year Sponsor/Advertisers will have their ads appear in both the fall and spring event programs, in three issues of the VMTA newsletter, and in the VMTA membership directory. Your business listing will be added to the VMTA website as a sponsor with a link to your website.

The annual fee to be a sponsor of VMTA is $125.00.

In addition, you have the opportunity to advertise in the program booklet for the upcoming Quad State Conference in Saco, Maine. Please see enclosed separate letter from the Maine Music Teachers Association.

Please complete the attached form by September 17, 2021, to become a VMTA Sponsor/Advertiser. We appreciate your support of our efforts to advance music education in Vermont.

Sincerely,

Laurel Ann Maurer, VMTA President

Barre, Vermont 05641

The Vermont Music Teachers Association is a nonprofit educational organization promoting music education and professional development.

Maine Music Teachers Association

Affiliated with Music Teachers National Association

July 20, 2021

Dear Friend in the Music Industry,

On October 1 to 2, 2021, the combined Music Teachers Associations of Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont will hold a joint Quad State Conference in Saco, Maine. All four state associations are affiliated with Music Teachers National Association (MTNA), the oldest professional music teacher association in the United States.

Music teachers and students from all four states will be attending both in-person and via livestream. A print and digital conference program will be provided to all attendees. This program will include the conference schedule, biographies of participating artists and advertising of music schools, stores and services throughout New England.

We invite you to receive recognition of your business or organization by advertising in our program. The guide will be printed in black and white and on 8 1/2" x 11" paper folded in half with an attractive cover. (See Ad Sizes and Rates below.)

The deadline to send ads and payment is Friday September 3, 2021. If you wish to participate, please email a high resolution pdf and send the form below with check payable to MaineMTA to the following address:

Amy Irish
119 Lancaster Ave.
Bangor, ME 04401
